D. C. LA RUE'S PANOPTICON OF INDIA .- Yesterday afternoon Mozart Hall was crowded by the rising generation, and last night by a fashionable and enthusiastic audience, to witness Mr. La Rue's wonderful mechanical illustrations of India. There will be another afternoon exhibition to-day at 3 o'clock, and the usual representations to-night. The Panoption has actually the mysterious power of throwing the whole audience into a seeming state of clairvoyance, and presenting to their senses the gorgeous land of the Orient, that dreamy para-disc of the world, India! with all its bewitching beauty, its transcendent poetry, its Lalah Rookh dreams of love, the splendor of Mars, and the begrimed, double-visage of Janus,

You bask in the effulgence of the East, you rest beneath the cool banyan tree's shade, you sail up the Jumma in luxuriant barges that would mock the splendors of Cleopatra's craft, and rival the graceful motion of the swan. Now you are borne in the gliding palanquin, with its gorgeous drapery, easy as if floating on the zephyr's wing-the easy and voluptuous thrill of whose locomotion is unequaled by anything this side of Mahomet's heaven. You ride on the nodding camel, or reclining on the back of the buge elephant, in a palatial howdah, you proceed to Delhi. Far more real than the ghost scenes in Macbeth, the mustering hosts pass be fore you, the blood-red field of battle glares in your eyes, your ears are deafened by the roar of artillery and the resounding crash of arms; and then come Howard-like episodes of the wounded warrior and his faithful steed, the bleeding sol dier, limping with torn and mangled limb, and the angel wife, that seeks at midnight the man gled corpse of her missing spouse, gliding amid the terrible carnage like angels of merey, or another Florence Nightingale, with a bright burning lantern in her hand-a symbol of her own virtuous and enlightened heart. Then comes Delhi with its lovely palaces, its splendid mausoleums and musjeids, its beautiful monuments, and that miniature heaven of human architecture, the palace of Shah Jehan the Grand Mogul, where the mighty Aurunzzebe and the lovely Lalah Rookh were born. To his sunshine of heaven succeed the lurid flames

Thursday night, two deck passengers, who came down on the J. W. Hailman, went into a coffeecalled for drinks. They say they paid for the liquor at the time, but as they started to the door the barkeeper demanded pay for the liquor. They asserted that they had paid, but the barkeeper insisted that they had not, and was then joined by another—the proprietor probably who insisted upon payment; but the men still refused, when two shots were fired from the house and both men were wounded; one in the neck, and the other in the arm. They had their wounds dressed, and then returned to the boat.

Woodlawn Trotting Races. FIFTH DAY. There was a very good attendance at Woodlawn yesterday to witness the rare sport offered our citizens, a goodly number of whom were ladies; and we are truly glad to see that our lovers of the turf are evincing more interest in the trotting matches than they have done heretofore. Although this course is recognized as the course in the West, yet there has been an apathy existing in regard to this department which we are glad to see is quietly wearing off. The trotting and pacing matches yesterday were like those of the week-truly wonderful; and it is with pleasure that we record it, and the result plainly shows, that Woodlawn will ere long be ranked among the first in the country, its central position and the prompt energy that characterizes the management of it. Promptly at the time, the horses were called up for the pacing match, Calliope having the pole, Heenan next, and Crockett on the outside. Each of the horses was in good condition, and seemed anxious to get off, Heenan being the favorite at the odds of three to one, and his backers found but few takers even at the First Heat .- At the tap they all got off well to gether, Croekett having a slight advantage, which he kept until he passed the quarter pole, although pressed hard by Heenan, Calliope being hopelessly in the wake. At the three-quarter pole, Heenan's driver tried to lop Crockett, but failed in doing so until they made the turn on the home stretch, when he made a brush for it and came in one length ahead, winning the heat in 2:25, Calliope having hard work to save himself from being distanced. Second Heat .- At the call they all shot forward Calliope second and Heenan last-but they like lightning-Crockett again having the lead, had not gone three lengths when Heenan left his legs, and by so doing left a gap of at least one hundred yards. Bets were freely offered now that he would be distanced, and quickly taken by his friends. Down the back-stretch Crockett was hard pressed by Calliope, and they passed the three-quarter pole neck and neck, Heenan being still far behind, almost hopelessly so, but on the home-stretch he shot forward, and came out nearly a length ahead winning the heat in 2:3214, Calliope second, and Davy Crockett third. It was now apparent that Crockett was too lame to go farther, and he was withdrawn, thus leaving the race between Heenan and Calliope.

Third Heat .- As the race was now narrowed lown to Heenan and Calliope, it was evident that this heat would decide it-and the result showed it, Heenan coming out three lengths ahead, winning the heat and race in 2:36%. Annexed is the SUMMARY.

THE TROTTING MATCH. This match excited considerable interest among our turimen, as some good going was expected, and the result shows that they were correct in so doing, as this is by far the best ime ever made on any course by four year olds, and we regret that our space will not permit a ull report of it. Below is the SUMMART.

BOILE COUNTY, KY., Oet. 23, 1860.

Editors Louisville Courier. For some days past, active preparations have been made for a grand "Bell - Union" demonstration, at the Fair Grounds, near Danville, in this sounty.

Notice was freely given by the "faithful," far and near. That all-consistent and reliable sheet, the Kentucky Tribune, was filled with earnest entreaties to the brethren everywhere to rally on that occasion to hear the Hon. J. J. Crittenden, R. W. Hanson, Jno. M. Harlan, Leslie Combs, and others who would, it declared, critainly, be present. Well, time rolled on—the appointed day—yea, hour, was upon us, and a company numbering perhaps three hundred, men, women, and children, assembled; but no Crittenden, no Hanson, no Jno. M. Harlan, no Combs, was there. Disappointment, and deep mortification was evinced plainly by every one composing this little "Spartan band" of devoted Union-savers. What can be the matter? was a question pat and answered numberless times, on that never to be forgotten day. The ladies present (God bless them) had our tenderest sympathies. More than onge they were heard to exclaim, "Did you ever witness such a failure?" "Oh, I do feel so bad!" "Now won't the Democrats have their own fun over this?" "It will do them so much good." I repeat, that for them I felt deeply—but in the language of our old friend "Bill Owens," of Lincoin county, Kentucky, we had "little or no sympathy" whatever. But to the speaking. The few deluded ones present had come to hear speaking—and speaking they must hear. In the absence of the "big game" above mentioned, the Hos. Johna F. Bell—the ardent producery Joshua—PROTECTION JOSHUA—SLAYE CODE JOSHUA, of 1859, mounted the stand, and delivered himself of what was pronounced by good judges, a speech that would have delighted the immost soul of the most intense Douglasite. "O what a fall was there, any countrymen"—what a turning about, politically—how different his teaching Black Republican candidate for President, called on Mr. Lincoln at his house, talked with him and his leading friends in that State, and learned much of the policy of that gentleman should he be elected to the Presidency. His letter to the Herald is an exceedingly interesting one, in view of the present situation of politicalaffairs, and we regret that it is not in our power to give it in our columns. Among other things he writes about, is the probable construction of his Cabinet, should sectionalism triumph in No vember; and he gives a list of thirty names, that are frequently mentioned by Mr. Lincoln's home friends and confidential associates in connection with the various places in the Adminis tration. It is a significant fact, and one eminent y worthy of the special consideration of the people of the slaveholding States, that of the thirty gentleman whose claims are now freely canvassed, at Mr. Lincoln's own home, in connec tion with a Black Republican Cabinet, seven are prominent friends and supporters of Bell and Everett, to-wit: McLean, of Pa.; Rayner, of N. C.; BOTTS, of Va.; GILMER, of N. C.; ETHER-IDOE, of Tenn.; DAVIS, of Md.; and NELSON, of Tenn. Not one of the whole number is a Demerat. Is it possible that Mr. Bell is being used to divide the South in order to aid LINCOLN by weakening his only real antagonist, and that his friends, like RAYNER, ETHERIDGE, BOTTS. &c., are to have a share in the Black Republican administration thus put in power? Look to it, people of Kentucky! freeman of the South! Be not deceived by the tricks of those who would delude you into an abandonment of your rinciples and a surrender of your rights by ypocritical professions of great attachment to he Union that they may profit by the triumph of those who threaten now to compel you to submit to the rule of a fanatical sectional ma ority! Look to it, people of the slaveholding States, as you value your liberty and independence! Look to it, before it is too late! The devil a saint is he."

The case being altered, sometimes alters the case. There was policy with Joshua then, and there is policy with Joshua now, and Joshua doubtless is satisfied that the ends justify the means. "A word to the wise." &c.

The next speaker on the stand was Hon. W. C. Anderson, for whom, as to particulars, the reader is respectfully referred to Hon. James S. Chrisman.

Another Douglas Elector for Breckin-ridge and Lane. We learn from the Nashville Union and American of vesterday, that Hon, W. C. B. JONES, of Tennessee, has withdrawn as an Elector on the Douglas ticket for the Second District in that State, and will support BRECKINEIDGE and LANE for President and Vice President. Mr. Jones was one of the Tennessee delegation to the National Democratic Convention, and has been one of DougLas' most ardent supporters. He was one of the three delegates from his State who remained in the Front Street Theater Convention after the withdrawal of the remainder of the delegation. The work goes bravely on.

The Democracy in Garrard. We have seen a private letter from a gentleman n Garrard county to his friend in this city, from which we are permitted to make the following

Anderson, for whom, as to particulars, the reader is respectfully referred to Hon. James S. Chrisman.

This unpleasant little meeting was concluded by a pleasant little speech, from a pleasant little man, familiarly known as little Jamey Harlan. Taking the affair altogether, it was certainly the great farce—failure—fizzle—of the scason. By the way—some of our citizens were not a little astonished when they saw, and heard it announced, that the meeting would be held at the Fair Grounds. They remembered that four years ago, the Democracy desired to hold a meeting there, and the privilege was denied them; that two years ago she Sabbath Schools wished to enjoy a pic nic at the same place, and their request was refused; that the application of the Odd Fellows, for the use of the grounds last year, net with alike fare; and that the Democracy of Boyle declined holding a mass meeting this year for the want of a suitable place, &c. How is this? Do the grounds belong evelusively to the Union-ancers? and are they to be used alone by those who are engaged in modern Union saving? If such is the case, we have nothing more to say.

In conclusion, with the best of feelings for all concerned in the late unfortunate altempt at a political meeting, we would earnestly exhort the leaders—the speakers particularly—to a different course. You know you are wrong, and that the only effect of your course is to mislead your fellow men. This is no time for such foolishness—quit is gentlemen, quit it. The people, the honest masses, do not intend to be humburged into casting the vote of Kentucky extract:

"John C. Breekinridge is gaining votes daily in our county and the surrounding counties since the elections in Indians, Ohio, and Pennsylvania. My word for it, if every Breekinridge man will do his duty, he will get Kentucky. We are not here relying on stump orators so much as we are upon quiet reasoning with our fellow men. We are working, and intend to work until the close of the polls, and I make the prediction that Breekinridge will get his State, and I wish you to remember what I say.

that the only ensert of the total the people, the honest masses, do not intend to be humburged into easing the vote of Kentucky against their own gallant and gifted Breckin-ridge, while contending, as he is, and has ever done, for our glorious Union and constitutional constitutional states. Mr. Yanczy's manner of speaking:

Mr. Yanczy's manner of speaking is also entirely different from that which is commonly attributed to him. It is enerally supposed that there is a charm about his delivery which carries an addience away; that his style partakes more of the flowery and ornate than the simple and solid; and that his ornatory resembles in kind that which enabled Patrick Henry, or wind the town is to pay $1,600, and the road company $1,400.

The Flemingsburg Star says M. A. Kirk sold his farm, in the neighborhood of Elizaville, in Fleming county, known as the "Somerville Place," containing 106 acres, to Dr. J. L. Gardner, of Nisholas county, for $2,800, in three payments.

Mr. Kirk, as administrator of Solomon Hilligoss, deceased, sold the farm of the deedent, in the same neighborhood, containing 280 acres, at $25 per acre. Milton Moore was the purnanner of speaking:"

He adds the following paragraph in reference to the feeling in Kentucky:

to the feeling in Kentucky:

"Our friends in Kentucky are sanguine of being able to carry that State over Bell and Evereit. Those Douglas men in the State, who are sinearely Democrats, are beginning to see that there is not the slightest chance for their candidate, and that the only result of running an electoral ticket would be to give the State to the enemies of the Democratic party. Besides, there are but few men in the State who are in favor of Squatter Sovereignty, the Democratic and Opposi ion Conventions last year having both unanimously resolved that Congress had the power to protest slave property in the Territories. All seem to feel a pride, too, in the gallant son of Kentucky, John C. Breckinridge, and will strive carnestly to carry his native State for the Demearnestly to carry his native State for the Democratic candidates. It is the general belief here that the Democratic will carry every Southern State, and Gov. Stevens assures me that New York will go for the fusion ticket, thus securing the defeat of Abraham Lincoln.

SENSE VS. SENTIMENT.—To be philosophical, to be even sensible in love affairs, is a rare felicity. Three-fourths of all the songs, sonnets, and madrigals of lovers are written in descration of inconstancy; in sorrow for unrequited affection, and in revenge of false vows and promises. Sometimes, however, we see a more wholesome sentiment. Tennyson, in his poem, "In Memorium," says very truly and beautifully:—

And Congreve, who wrote many years car-er, says with less beauty of diction, but with qualphilosophy in the thought :omiosephy in the thought: —
"False though she be to me and love,
I'll ne'er pursue revenge;

Though I deplore the change.

which occurred upward of thirty years ago, at Petersburg, Va.:

A shocking affair took place some thirty or more years since at Petersburg, Va. Some young men, doubting the courage of a friend and companion, arranged a plan to draw him into a duel with one of the number—the seconds to be in the plot, and the pistols to be loaded without balls. The duel was arranged, but during the preliminaries, the intended victim was led to suspect the truth, but kept silent. On repairing to the field, the father of the principal in the piot hid himself in the bushes near by to witness the anticipated sport.

A shot was exchanged—without effect, of course. The supposed oward demanded a second fire, and the same result followed. He then stated that, anticipating the possibility of this, he had provided a couple of pistols, which he produced, and which he pledged his honer were executly loaded, and tendered them for the choice of his opponent. The farce was ended, and the intended joke became a fearful reality, as the result proved. The distance being but five paces, both fell at the first fire—one killed outright, and the other mortally wounded.—What were the feelings of the father, as he bore his dead son from the field of sport!"

The above statement evidently has reference to an affair of honor which took place in this city about 39 years ago. It is needless now to state the origin and particulars of the duel, in which both the principals were killed. Suffice it to say that the correspondent of the Boston Evening Express was in error in supposing that there was any jesting whetever in the matter. The quarrel, the challenge, and the combat were all sterm restities, and the tragical result was deeply deplored in this community.—[Petersburg (Va.) Express.

A few days ago a dispatch of this sort was received at the office of one of our large cotton brokers, after business hours, and sent up home, which it reached before him, and was duly counted over by his wife. Now, we don't wish to cass any insituations on female curiosity, but to a woman a telegram is certainly an object of interest. Not themselves receiving them every day on almost trivial subjects as we do, they have an idea it is always a life or death case.

The old lady sees the dispatch and attempts to take it. But no, with that mystery in woman's nature, which makes her more lovely in grief, she grasps the fatal writing, and hides from all, even her mother, her cause of sorrow. Fainting fit after fit follow, and smelling salts and rinegar are in requisition. About this stage of the proceeding, in walks Monsieur the Broker, his poor little wife without a word of reproach, handed him the dispatch, which was as follows: "Your darling—sick—Saint Nicholas—send 1,000—true love—only—Mary." It's not being signed, and Mary being the last word, does look a little criminal to a young wife whose husband has just returned from New York. THE EARTHQUAKE AT QUEBEC! Factories and Houses Destroyed—Panie Among the People!

Throughout the whole length and breadth of the sity the earthquake of this morning is the absorbing topic of conversation—the recollection of such a well defined shock being past the memory of even the "oldest inhabitant." We have reminiscences of the shock of an earthquake being felt in Quebec some four andtwenty years ago, but that of this morning far execeded it in intensity and duration. With regard to time, allowance being made for difference in time-keepers, all agree that the shock commenced at about ten minutes before six o'clock this morning, and lasted for many seconds, some say minutes; but under such circumstances, it is exceedingly difficult to reckon time correctly. The second province and the second processing the second process.

But all agree in representing the shock as something unparalleled in Canada; and in addents in connection with it have reached our ears, the recital of which would occupy columns of our space. In some dwellings the feeling was that of immediate proximity to some extensive steam manufactory, whose wheels were revolving with that degree of velocity which give a thunder sort of sound and a strong vibratory motion. In others, the action was oscillatory, with an occasional vibration, but in all, everything movable and immovable was shaken more or less; many things of a light nature being thrown down, and glass and china ware, furniture, light and heavy, were ratting and jumping in the most extraordinay manner. In some instances the plaster of the ceilings and walls was shaken down, and the jointings of wooden buildings opened. In the substantially built houses of the inhabitants were inexplicable.

Farmers from the neighborhood of Laval, when on their road to market, had halted their horses for a little rest, and themselves gone into a house in the bush for the same purpose, felt the shock so severely that they rushed terrified from the house, imagining that it was coming down about their ears. At Lorette, doors were shaken from their places, and crockery in cupboards smashed to pieces. At Point Levi, the motion of the earth was violently felt, and fear and terror prevailed everywhere. On the river, too, the trembling, vibratory motion was communicated to the shipping. The commander of a vessel lying at Dinning's booms informs us that, unable to account for the strange motion communicated to his ship, he ran on deck to account for it. He then halled a man upon a raft at a little distance from the ship, inquiring raft at a little distance from the ship, inquiring if he had observed snything unusual; the man, however, replied he had not.

It was then the idea of an earthquake occurred to the captain, and that the shock had been felt on board in consequence of the communication existing between the ship and the earth by means of the anchor at the bottom of the river. It is also reported that the light-house at L'Islet has been partially fractured by the shock sustained this morning. So far as we have learned, up to the time of going to press, no accident whatever has resulted from this great natural phenomena; a fact for which we ought to be truly grateful, there being no doubt upon our mind that the shock experienced here was but the spent effort of one of nature's great operations in some far distant and less favored land, and of whose ravages we are yet destined to following we find in the Davenport (Iowa) Gazette:

Our fellow-citizen, Mr. T. Scott, who has just returned from Missouri, informs us that the good people of that State were suffering from the effects of drouth. There has not been any rain in that portion of the State he visited since the 4th of July last. Residents of thirty years there informed him that never in their recollection has there been "such a time"—no crops. Mr. Scott purchased in Morgan and Monitan counties, about forty miles southeast of Jefferson City (near the center of the State), two hundred head of cattle, which he intends driving to, and feeding in Cedar county, in this State. As to hogs, there are none to be had, they having been all bought up by drovers, &c. Many of the farmers in that section of country are removing their stock temporarily to Illinois and Iowa to winter. The people in some parts of Missouri are suffering for something to cat.—Our informant says that in a travel of two weeks, he saw potatoes on the table but once—and these were imported from St. Louis. The bill of fare at the best houses "down thar" embraced only "corn bone and pork," and "pork and corn hone" embraced only "corn bone and pork, and corn bone." The Cotton Crop.—The season has advanced so far that we can, with almost a certainty, estimate the yield of cotton per acre on the Uplands. The terrible drouth of last summer was felt more severely in some localities than others, and there is a falling off in the crop from three-fourths to one-half upon the Uplands. This statemen: is not made at random; it is based upon the opinions of the oldest and best planters in this State and Texas. As a conclusive proof of the failure of the cotton crop on the hills, the planters are taking their hands to the Red river plantations to assist in gathering the crop in that frufful region. Even on Red river, where nothing but an overflow has hitherta affected it, the stand is bad upon the stiff clay lands. We repeat the prediction which we made several weeks since, that the Red river country would not ship more than one-half the number of bales cent to market last year.—[Shreveport (La.) Gazeite.

trasion, defamed the purest and best men in the nation, and finally concentrated all their energies in one grane attack on Senstor Briotit, of Indiana. Foiled in every movement, defeated in every attempt, they were fast sinking down late that apathy which precedes dissolution. But Yancer came, as though to perform for them the last sad rites of sepulture, and his presence roused them to another struggle for existence, not for success, and is the occasion of a resort to their first nesics. They are again on the Union kobby. They are again swearing by the Union and anathematizing disunionists. But the and anashematizing disunionists. But the thing is worn out. Their hypocrisy has been exposed, and their crocodile tears over the want of Democratic loyalty to the Union are appreciated. The day is at hand, and they had as well be reconciled to the deere of fate.—

The people have willed it. BENCKINRIDGS and LANGARE will be decisive as to this fact, for the question upon it is now, for the first time, distinctly before the people have willed it. BENCKINRIDGS and LANGARE decisions ellevile well. But if, unhappily, on the other hand, our Northern breliven are overwhelmed in the conflict, who of the South in My JUDOMENT, MUST PRONOUNCE THE UNION AT AN ENGLAGE AT ONCE IN THE CONTROLLING AT AN ENGLAGE AT ONCE IN THE CONTROLLING AND AND AND ENGLAGE AT ONCE IN THE CONTROLLING AND AND ENGLAGE AND AND AND AND AND ENGLAGE. Union as it was made, and the whole South are for them in solid column. Politicians may rave, and demagogues fame and fret, and office.

"The mere election of a Democratic Presi-

Tarve, and demagogues fame and fret, and office seekers awear great big and bitter oaths, but it is fixed by the voice of the freemen of the country, and who shall gainsay it?

But they are on the Union again, and to please them, and, perchance, to enlighten some one who yet confides in professions intended only to deceive, we give again a portion of the disunion record of the Union party's Presidential candidate, coupled with the sayings of Mr. Douglas' principal friends in the slave States. In 1850, in the Senate of the United States, Mr. Bell said:

"For, sir, it is not a mere question whether we shall preserve the Union; FOR THAP MAY BE AND IET PROVB NO GREAT BOON EITHER TO OURSELVES OR POSTERITY.

Don't itlook well for the friends of Douglas

Don't it look well for the friends of DorgLas and the supporters of Ball to oppose Breck-INRIDGE and LANE because they are disunion

Mr. Bell said:

"For, sir, it is not a mere question whether we shall preserve the Union; FOR THAT MAY BE AND IET PROVE NO GREAT BOON EITHER TO OURSELVES OR POSTERITY. The question is not whether the States shall continue united according to the letter of the covenant by which they are bound together.—Is is, whether they shall continue practically and efficiently co-operative in carrying out the great ends of the association. The question is whether mutual trust and confidence shall continue to animate and encourage mutual efforts in promoting and multiplying common benefits; or whether mutual harred and distrust shall step in to check all progress; to distract and confound all joint endeavors for the common welfare; in fine, to entail upon the country all the evils of endies discord. That is the question.

AND WHEN YOU PRESENT THAT ISSUE TO ME, ISAY GIVE ME SEPARATION; GIVE ME DISUNION; GIVE ME ANYTHING IN PREFERENCE TO A UNION SUSTAINED ONLY BY POWER BY CONSTUTIONAL AND LEGAL TIES, WITHOUT RECIPEROCAL TRUST AND CONFIDENCE.—IF OUR FUTURE CAREER IS TO BE ONE OF ETERNAL DISCORD. OF ANGRY CRIMINATION AND RECRIMINATION, GIVE ME RATHER SEPARATION WITH ALL ITS CONSEQUENCES. If I am to be at year let me know it at once, that I may put my house in order and be ready to meet the consequences."—[App. to Cong. Globe, 1st Sess. 31st Cong. page 1101. The manifestations of rage and madness of the opposition press towards Mr. YANGHT would be amusing if they were not pitiable. Unable to meet his arguments, without power to successfully attack his positions, prostrate before his resistless appeals and eloquent invo eations, they have no recourse but to vent their impotent rage in weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth. It is in vain. They are but kicking against the pricks. They cannot harm Mr. YANGET, who is a candidate for no office. who asks for nothing for himself, and who ap-peals to the freemen of the nation only to save the Constitution and perpetuate our beloved Union. They only show an intelligent public how desperate their cause is, and how untenable by legisimate reasoning their positions are when they seek to destroy the influence of net me know it at once, that I may put my house in order and be ready to meet the conse-quences."—[App. to Cong. Globe, 181 Seas. 31st Cong. page 1101.

And, again, on the 18th of March, 1858, in the arguments they cannot answer, by disingenu-ons attacks on what Mr. YANCHT has thought, or said, or written in times past. We have printed, entire, two of Mr. YANCET's specches Senate of the United States, in the debate of the uring this canvass-one delivered at Memphis, Nebraska-Kansas bill, he declared:

THERE IS NO GENTLEMAN HERE WITH WHOM I DIFFER AS TO THE VALUE OF THE UNION OF THESE STATES, TO WHOM I DO NOT ACCORD HONESTY AND PATRIOTISM OF PURPOSE. There is simply between us a difference in judgment as to the true interest of this great country, the true interest of the South as well as the North, connected with the Union. When my attention is invited to the consideration of the advantages and bleasings that may follow disunion to the South, I shun the subject as one that is speculative only, and prematurely brought forward. That is a field of inquiry into which I do not propose now to enter. WHEN AN ISSUE ISMADE, WHEN A QUESTION DOES ARISE DEMANDING Tenn, the other his overwhelming argument in this city. Our papers in Kentucky have printed these speeches as they were delivered by Mr. YANCEY. They have been circulated broadcast over the State, and over adjoining States. The people have read them. If the reasons they contain are good and valid, they will influence honest men who heard them, or have read them in print, and abuse of Mr. YANCEY will not affeet them : if not sound and sonclusive, they will not and should not have any weight. That they are entitled to all the influence and respect of unanaworable and irresistible arguments, is evidenced by the fallure of the Opposition to QUESTION DOES ARISE DEMANDING UCH AN INQUIRY AS THAT, I SHALL BE READY TO ENTER UPON IT, AND O ESTIMATE THE VALUE OF THR SUCH AN INQUIRY AS THAT, I SHALL BE READY TO ENTER UPON IT. AND 40 ESTIMATE THE VALUE OF THE UNION; but I will not anticipate the occurrence of any such contingency.—WHEN THE NORTH SHALL, BY ANY DELIBERATE ACT, DEPRIVE THE SOUTH OF ANY FAIR, AND JUST, AND EQUAL FARTICIPATION IN THE BENKEITS OF THE UNION—IF, FOR EXAMPLE, THE TERRITORY NOW PROPOSED TO BE ADMITTED INTO THE UNION AS A STATE HAD NOT BEEN SUBJECT TO AN INTERDICT OF SLAVERY FOR THIRTY YEARS—IT IT WERE A TERRITORY, SUCH AS THAT LYING WEST OF ARKANSAS, BY CLIMATE ADAPTED TO SLAVE LABOR, AND BY POPULATION ALREADY A SLAVE TERRITORY FOR ADMISSION INTO THE UNION AS A SLAVE STATE, THE POWER. FULL NORTH, WITHOUT ANY OF THE FEELINGS AND RESENTMENTS NATURALLY GROWING OUT OF THE REPRAL OF THE MISSION IN REGARD TO KANSAS, SHOULD DELIBERATELY ANNOUNCE TO THE SOUTH, "YOU SHALL HAVE NO MORE SLAVE STATES," THAT WOULD AFFORD A PRETEXT WITH WHICH THE SOUTH MIGHT WITH SOME REASON AND WITH SOME ASSURANCE OF THE APPROVAL OF THE CIVILIZED WORLD AND OP POSTER attempt even to controvert them. The course of the organs of the Union-savers in regard to Mr. Yangar is the most gratifying to us they could have adopted, as, instead of exciting the projudice of the people against Mr. Breckinnines, who cannot be held responsible for what any one of his friends may have done at some past time, it only serves to invite reflecting men to an examination of the speeches that cause such consternation in the ranks of the anti-Demoeracy.

The St. Louis Bulletin says it has seen a let-ter from Col. S. B. CHURCHILL to a gentleman in that city, "in which he gives the most glowing accounts of what the Breckinridge men are doing in the Northwest. He says that they 'have had a perfect Democratic revival' through-out that section; that 'great changes are taking place,' that 'our friends are in the finest spirits, and confident of success;' and that 'the people are fully aroused and enthusiastic,' and 'intend to give Breckingings and Lane a decisive majority.' I tell you, says he, things look well up here." THE CIVILIZED WORLD AND OF POSTER-ITY SEEK TO DISSOLVE THE UNION. And the DOUGLAS Unionists—the allies of The Squatters announce, with a flourish Know Nothingism—occupy, as farns the record of trumpets, that Judge Hise is to speak at one is concerned, a position certainly no better of their meetings in Washington county. It is than that of Yanger, Rheff, John Bell, and others of that class. Henseuel V. Johnson, for whom the friends of the Union in Kentucky are asked to vote, in order to defeat John C. not vote for Douglas. And the Squatter Sovereigns have no authority for using Jadge Hisa's

After an experience of one year in putting up Vulcanite Base, Messrs. Fittz & Fulton are more fully propared to indorse its claims of superiority to everything else as a base for Artificial Teeth. When they introduced it in Louisville they advertised it as ADIES UNDERWEAR—follows: That it was one half lighter than your follows: That it was one half lighter than metal, more deanly, and that they were more certain of getting a perfect fit of the mouth. They now go further, and say that it is much stronger than sets on motal, and less liable to be injured by accident, while the low price brings it within the reach of all. Believing that their efforts to give the best work at small profits will be appreciated, they have determined on a reduction of their prices. To substantiate the above they pladge themselves to replace with gold, without extra charge, any set on Vulcanite that fails in any one particular as set forth above. They still put up the gold work for those who desire it. Office next door to the Cathedral, Fifth street,

So much are we passed on the line of the most unobservant. It is worth more than its cost in the increased concess and pleasantness it gives the carpet, and we think you do not overrate its demonsy in staling that it adds one half to the carpet's wear.

CAUTION.

SPURIOUS AMERICAN WATCHES. WE are credibly informed that some of the Jewelers uisville and other places are selling counterfeit and mitation American Watches for the genuine article nanufactured at Waltham, Mass., and particularly a foreign imitation of our watch, named P. S. Bartley, which is represented to be manufactured in Hartford, Conn. It may be of service to the public to be informed that ther is no manufactory of watches in that place. The genuine article of one grade of our watches is named P. S. BART-LETT, WALTHAM, MASS, and all our watches of every grade are marked "Waltham, Mass."

It is hardly necessary to state that such watches ar like ours in form only, and are made upon the ame old system that has already flooded the country with watches that are not only vexatious and a constant source of expense, but really useless to the owners, and when bought for genuine are calculated to injure the high reputation which our watches have attained. We therefore caution the public against buying our watches from any person who cannot furnish a certificate of genuineness for every watch offered for sale, bearing the number of the watch and the signature of the Treasurer of the Company, R. E. Robbins. We also beg to inform those who deal in the spurious article, that legal proceedings will be instituted against them, upon any well authenticated instance of their selling a counterfeit or colorable lmitation of any of our products.
